TPATH in May

It’s been a busy and successful month for TPATH members. We’ve published 3 scientific articles and 1 book. On top of this Annieliese Singh has been named Tulane University’s first Chief Diversity Officer. As with last month, articles and information on Coronavirus (COVID-19) are included in a separate section that folks can skip if they prefer.

Please let us know if you see any errors, or have news, job postings, recent publications, and anything else you’d like to see here. You can find job postings, resources, activism, and publications in the member resources section of the website.

What’s Up With the PATHs?
Please let us know if you’re having trouble getting access to the WPATH or USPATH listservs. If you are a member of these organizations you are entitled to this.

EPATH

EPATH, together with the European Society for Sexual Medicine, has published a statement challenging the President of the Hungarian Republic’s recent legislative discrimination against trans people.

TPATH Website

Check out the Member Resources section on the website for these and other aids.

★ Please take a moment to add your name to and make use of TPATHs skill sharing and contact list.

★ TPATH member Florence Pare has put together an amazing notated spreadsheet of Academic Journals for Trans Health. They have also created a spreadsheet of Non-Binary & Genderqueer Academic Resources.

Social Media

TPATH has a Google Listserv, website forums, and a very active Facebook group with over 850 members! All groups require individual registration and are only open to trans and/or intersex identified folks. Please feel welcome to add friends and co-workers to the Facebook group, but remind them to answer the membership questions first.

Volunteering

Let us know if you are interested in volunteering or collaborating with us on these or other projects.

Leadership

We are actively recruiting folks from the Global South to take on leadership roles. Commitment is flexible and takes place primarily online with leadership meetings via Skype.
Blog Posts

TPATH has a blog! Right now we mostly use it for expressions of solidarity and announcements. We’d love to make it available to folks that want to write posts about their experiences with and as trans healthcare providers. Please get a hold of us if you’re interested in writing something.
