TPATH in December

Yet another great month for TPATHers. Members received 1 awards, 5 articles, 1 book, and 2 talks (past and upcoming). TPATH is also busy planning our first conference, tentatively scheduled for Spring 2021 (to be held online). We’re happy to report that initial invitations to the Steering Committee have gone out and we hope to announce the make up publicly in the coming weeks.

Check out the News section for global articles on transgender health and issues. This month there are very interesting articles about a trans woman using data science to fight nazis, a school for transgender people in Argentina, Intersex Awareness Day, the launch of a transgender magazine in India, and many more. There are also a number of new professional and academic career opportunities to check out.

As always, let us know if you see any errors, or with news, job postings, publications, and anything else you'd like to see here. You can also find job postings, publications, and resources in the member resources section of the website.

Calls for Research Participants

All studies are led by a TPATH member and actively seeking participants.

University of Massachusetts, Boston

Have you been impacted by COVID-19? Has the national response to racialized police violence affected you? We want to know how you’ve been holding up during this time of national and global instability. People of all racial/ethnic backgrounds and gender identities are encouraged to participate in this research study. We are especially interested in the experiences of: people of color; transgender and nonbinary people; and other members of the LGBTQ+ community.

TPATH Info
Website
Check out the Member Resources section on the website for these and other aids.
★ Please take a moment to add your name to and make use of TPATHs skill sharing and contact list.
★ TPATH member Florence Pare has put together amazing notated spreadsheets of Academic Journals for Trans Health and Non-Binary & Genderqueer Academic Resources.
★ TPATH has created a Google Map to collect and track transgender health resources. Please add your entries.
Social Media

TPATH has a Google Listserv, website forums, and a very active Facebook group with over 1000 members! All groups require individual registration and are only open to trans and/or intersex identified folks. Please feel welcome to add friends and co-workers to the Facebook group, but remind them to answer the membership questions first.

Conference

We are planning a virtual TPATH conference tentatively scheduled for spring 2021. Check out our info sheet for more details on what it and the Steering Committee will look like. We’re happy to announce that the Steering Committee has been selected and look forward to announcing this in the coming weeks.

Volunteering

Let us know if you are interested in volunteering or collaborating with us on these or other projects.

Blog Posts

TPATH has a blog! We’d love to make it available to folks that want to write posts about their experiences with and as trans healthcare providers. Please email us if you’re interested in writing something.
