Transgender Professional Association for Transgender Health

TPATH in July

The big day is almost here!

TPATH's first ever conference, entitled Converging Crises: Transgender Health, Rights, and Activism in 2021, is set to start Friday, July 30th and run till August 1st. Because of the sheer number of submissions and the generous donations of attendees we were able to add a whole day to accommodate as many presentations as possible. In all we have over 60 talks, panels, posters, and artistic presentations! We also expect to provide Spanish and French interpretation for all talks.

Our conference schedule is now available and, for those who have registered, the conference platform is up. Already almost 200 people have and scholarships remain plentiful (please email conference2021@tpathealth.org if you are interested in one).

In other news, TPATH Members have written two academic articles, and one book this month. Our News section also includes several interesting articles on global transgender healthcare, including several with good news for a change. This includes an article on Spain's movement to adopt a bill on gender self recognition; a transgender health education initiative in India; government initiatives in Argentina and Bangladesh to create more job opportunities for trans folks; and a piece on the first ever Indian/Pakistani joint pride event.

As always, let us know if you see any errors, or with news, job postings, publications, and anything else you'd like to see here or on the member resources section of the website. Don't forget to join our Listserv if you'd like to get this newsletter sent directly to your inbox.

Calls for Research Participants

All studies are led by a TPATH member and actively seeking participants.

University of Massachusetts, Boston
The purpose of this research is to explore the mental health impact of COVID-19 and current climate of racial justice protests and outrage. Your participation in this study will take approximately 15-25 minutes. If you decide to participate in this study, you will be asked to answer questions about yourself and your experiences in a confidential survey. Questions will inquire about your well-being, various identities, and experiences during COVID-19 and the current climate of racial justice protests.
Rodrigo Aguayo

Transgender and Non-Binary - Allied Research Collective (TRANS-ARC)
This survey is open to all members of the trans/non-binary community, as well as healthcare providers, researchers, and other stakeholders with an interest in genital gender-affirming surgery.

What's Up With the PATHs?

Please let us know if you're having trouble getting access to the WPATH or USPATH listservs. If you are a member of these organizations you are entitled to this.

USPATH

Abstract submissions are now open for the upcoming USPATH conference. The conference takes place online from Nov 4-7, 2021 and abstract submissions close July 9th.

TPATH Info

Conference

- ★ We are happy to announce the addition of a day to the conference (Friday, July 30th). This was made possible, and even necessary, because of all the amazing proposals and generous donations.
- ★ Registration for the conference is still open. Please don't hesitate to ask for a scholarship if this is a barrier. You can do so by emailing us at conference2021@tpathealth.org. Please include "conference scholarship inquiry" in the header.
- ★ The conference schedule is now available. Please note that a few changes may continue to be made to it. The abstract booklet will be released shortly.

★ The conference platform is now live. If you are already registered you should have received an invitation from Whova to join it. Take some time to browse around the site, create a profile, and chat with other folks on the discussion boards. More information will become available closer to the conference.

Website

Check out the Member Resources section on the website for these and other aids.

★ Please take a moment to add your name to and make use of TPATHs skill sharing and contact list.

★ Florence Pare has put together amazing notated spreadsheets of Academic Journals for Trans Health and Non-Binary & Genderqueer Academic Resources.

★ TPATH has created a Google Map to collect and track transgender health resources. Please add your entries.

Social Media

TPATH has a Google Listserv, website forums, and a very active Facebook group with over 1100 members! All groups require individual registration and are only open to trans and/or intersex identified folks. Please feel welcome to add friends and co-workers to the Facebook group, but remind them to answer the membership questions first.

Volunteering

Let us know if you are interested in volunteering or collaborating with us on these or other projects.

TPATH has a blog! We'd love to make it available to folks that want to write posts about their experiences with and as trans healthcare providers. Please email us if you`re interested in writing something.
